A Service of Lessons and Carols for Advent

Sunday, Dec. 11, 4:30 pm

The tradition of heralding Christ's birth through a service of lessons and carols has gained popularity in churches since the late 1800's. St. John's own Lessons and Carols service features the entire music ministry of the church presenting familiar and unfamiliar songs for the Advent season. Through scripture and song let us reflect on the mystery of Advent.

S o n g s o f t h e G y p s y

Featuring mezzo-soprano Elizabeth Mitchell

Sunday, Feb. 5, 4:30 pm

St. John's concert series friends may remember Utah native Elizabeth Mitchell from her performance as Fiordiligi in our 2010 presentation of Mozart's opera Così fan tutte.

"Songs of the Gypsy" is a recital featuring Mitchell and pianist Lydia Qiu. This recital takes you into the heart of a gypsy camp by way of some of the world's best composers. The program includes stunning, gypsy music by Brahms, Verdi, Bizet, and Dvořák. This recital will have your toes tapping and you humming the tunes for days to come!

Suggested donation: $10; families $25.

World-renowned Italian organist

Eugenio Maria Fagiani

Saturday, May 12, 7:00 pm

Young Italian organist and composer Eugenio Fagiani is quickly gaining notoriety in Europe, Canada, and the United States. He is known not only as a fine interpreter of music but also as a skilled improviser. Fagiani will perform a program featuring Baroque-period works from Italian and German composers.

Suggested donation: $10; families $25.
